

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

The Second World War on trial Perspectives of international law and historical research

30 AUGUST-5 SEPTEMBER 2020
MASURIAN LAKELAND, POLAND

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

PARTICIPANTS

20 PhD students, young researchers or people engaged in public affairs from Poland, Germany, Russia, Ukraine and Central and Eastern Europe - depending on the possibility of travel to Poland due to COVID-19 restrictions. Very good passive and active knowledge of English (official language of the School) is required

LECTURERS

eminent historians, international lawyers and political scientists

PROGRAMME

lectures, case studies and workshops about the consequences of the Second World War from a historical and legal perspectives

REQUIREMENTS

CV and cover letter in English shall be sent to tarnogorski@cprdip.pl till 28 June 2020. Selected participants will be notified about the selection results to 3 July

WE COVER

accommodation, meals, participation in lectures and seminars, background materials, as well as transportation from Warsaw to Masurian Lakeland and back up to 200 EUR transport expenditures for participants from all countries except Poland

WE ALSO COVER